

Melissa Asher, CPS HR Consulting

Short Bio

With over 25 years of experience in human resources, specializing in training and development, test administration, and recruitment, Melissa brings a wealth of practical expertise to her Senior Leader role at CPS HR Consulting. She has extensive experience leading public sector projects for licensure and certification testing, online learning initiatives, compliance training rollouts, foundational supervisory training programs, leadership development, and high-profile executive searches. Her passion is to develop creative and valuable solutions for clients that lead to improved organization performance.

In her spare time, she enjoys two hobbies, running and wine, not usually done together. And, more importantly, she is a recovering helicopter mom to her 20-year-old son who took a gap year from college during the pandemic. Yeah, I'm a work in progress there.
